

TIMOTHY J. ROBENHYMER

EDUCATION: The Catholic University of America
Columbus School of Law, Washington, D.C.
Juris Doctorate, May 1990

The American University, Washington, D.C.
Bachelor of Arts, January 1987

LEGAL

EXPERIENCE:

Timothy J. Robenhymer, Attorney At Law
303 Jefferson Boulevard

Warwick, Rhode Island February, 2000 – Present

Sole proprietor of a general civil litigation law practice. Responsible for the general operation of civil practice including commercial litigation, contractual disputes, land use and environmental law, anti-trust, banking, construction, subrogation, domestic relations, personal injury and intellectual property.

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP

180 South Main Street

Providence, Rhode Island April, 1998 – February, 2000

Senior Associate involved in the firm's Insurance and Litigation Practice Groups, representing insurance companies, agencies, insurance service organizations, financial institutions and investors. Also provide advice on organizational and corporate matters, mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance and representation before regulatory authorities. Responsible for the general operation of civil practice including commercial litigation, contractual disputes, land use and environmental law, anti-trust, banking, construction, subrogation, and intellectual property; drafting, reviewing and negotiating numerous commercial transactions.

Morrison, Mahoney & Miller

One Providence-Washington Plaza

Providence, Rhode Island September, 1992 - April, 1998

Associate in large insurance defense firm. Duties include court appearances on the dispositive and non-dispositive motion calendars; conduct depositions and arbitrations; researching and drafting memoranda for dispositive and appellate briefs. Primary responsibility for handling in excess of sixty litigation files from opening of file through discovery and trial. Extensive client contact in the course of case handling and business promotion. Solely responsible for oversight and handling of all subrogation files in the branch office. Involvement in trials at Superior and District Court levels.

Kiernan, Plunkett & Redihan

The Remington Building

Providence, Rhode Island

September, 1991 – September 1992

Associate in law firm of ten lawyers concentrating in general civil litigation. Duties include extensive argument on the dispositive and non-dispositive motion calendars, trials at the District Court level, conducting depositions and arbitrations, researching and drafting memoranda regarding dispositive and appellate briefs. Solely responsible for oversight and handling of all subrogation files in the branch office.

Judicial Law Clerk to United States Magistrate Judge

Jacob Hagopian, U.S. District Court

Rhode Island

August, 1990 – August 1991

Responsible for research and drafting of memoranda and opinions involving civil and criminal dispositive and non-dispositive motions; Habeas Corpus petitions; actions brought under Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983; applications for disability insurance benefits.

Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable John M. Vittone,

Deputy Chief Judge, U.S. Department of Labor

Office of Administrative Law Judges

Washington, D.C.

May, 1989 – April, 1990

Responsible for drafting orders and final decisions in cases arising under a variety of federal statutes including the Davis-Bacon Act, McNamara-O'Hara Service Contract Act, Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act, Longshore and Harbor Worker's Compensation Act, Immigration and Nationality Act, and the Job Training Partnership Act.

BAR

MEMBERSHIP:

Rhode Island and Massachusetts, Federal District Court for the Districts of Rhode Island and Massachusetts.